CHIN-UP.....DATE

Happy New Year! We pray this year you will be blessed, and God will work in your life.

At present I am coaching and mentoring six churches, including one church plant. I am blessed to have the opportunity to minister to churches at various stages in their life and growth.

I am excited that in the new church plant I am working with, first generation Muslim and Hindu people are hearing the gospel. New churches provide a greater opportunity to reach people for Christ. Please pray for this work and those involved.

We would like to make some promises to you regarding our financial integrity:

- We would urge everyone to first give to their local church
- We will live within our means. We believe God will give us the money to do what we are being called to do. We will not purchase until God has already provided the money. This will also help us know His will.
- Our financial reports are available at all times, and may be requested.
- We will provide receipts for all donations.
- We will never rent or sell our mailing list.
- We will communicate our financial needs to you, our supporters, as clearly and truthfully as possible. We will not overstate our needs to increase income.
- We believe our ministry was initiated, and is sustained by God. We will diligently follow God's direction and do all we can to obey Him. It is God's ministry, and not ours. It is His to prosper or end according to His Sovereignty.

Giving statements for 2008 are being mailed. If you do not receive yours soon, please let us know. Also, please note the giving instruction change.

Are You Ready For A Challenge?

Whose agenda, whose vision? This question arose from a conversation with an individual involved in a new church plant. He was sharing with me his frustrations in previous ministries. He said, "I don't want,....,I would not... , if it doesn't happen this way.... " After he shared his thoughts and feelings, I asked him, "What does he see happening?" He engaged me by saying, "I won't, I want, I see, I can." All that he listed were admirable. goals. Then I asked permission to respond. I asked if all that he wanted was what God wanted, and was that what God wanted to do through him? Because, unless we fall in line with God's agenda, what we do does not really matter. So what is your agenda/vision? Does it bring God glory, or you glory?

In each newsletter I will be sharing information or an article that might be helpful in your life and walk with Jesus.
